
In Memoriam

GEORGE LEWIN

George Lewin, a long-time member of the Audio Engineering Society and a Fellow since 1959, died on November 17, 1963. At the time of his death, he was Chief of the Pictorial Engineering Office of the U.S. Army Signal Corps Pictorial Center in Long Island City. A pioneer in motion picture audio work, and well known in the field, he was a member of the Board of Managers of the Society of Motion Picture and Television Engineers.

Born in New York City on July 27, 1903, Mr. Lewin studied at Cooper Union Institute of Technology, receiving his B.S. in Electrical Engineering in 1925. After working with Paramount Pictures from 1928 to 1932, and with General Service Studios in Hollywood from 1932 to 1934, he returned to the East Coast, and from 1935 to 1945 was associated with Warner Brothers Pictures in Brooklyn, Audio Productions in Long Island City, and Hearst-Metrotone News in New York.

Mr. Lewin joined the Signal Corps Pictorial Center in 1945, remaining there until the time of his death.
