

IN MEMORIAM

J. Pritchett

John Edward Pritchett, president of Quantum Audio Labs in Glendale, CA, died 1981 January 29. He was 41 years of age. Quantum Audio Labs is a manufacturer of professional mixing consoles for the recording and broadcast industries. As president, Pritchett had a controlling interest in the company. Prior to 1975 when he joined Quantum, he worked for Fender Music Co., Anaheim, CA; Altec Lansing, Anaheim, CA; and James B. Lansing Co. in Northridge, CA.

Pritchett attended Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah, where he received a B.S.E.E. degree and California State University where he received an M.S.E.E. He was a sergeant in the U.S. Army Reserve and was active in professional organizations such as the I.E.E.E. and the A.E.S. He attended and was active in the Church of The Latter Day Saints, La Canada and the La Crescenta Stake.