

Audio Engineering Society

Nomination form for election to the membership grades of Fellow and Honorary Member

Candidates for election to the above membership grades must be nominated by an AES member in good standing, and supported by five additional members (Fellow) or ten additional members (Honorary Member). Candidates for Fellowship should have been members of the Society in good standing for at least five years in order to be eligible for election. A summary should be provided on this form of evidence relating to the criteria shown below for the relevant grade. A brief professional biography (minimum 1 page, maximum 2 pages) should be attached to this nomination form. Nominations will be considered by the Awards Committee and recommended to the Board of Governors for approval. Successful candidates will be notified by the Secretary. Fellowships and Honorary Memberships will normally be awarded at an appropriate Awards Ceremony during a Convention.

Fellow: a member who has rendered conspicuous service, or is recognized to have made a valuable contribution to the advancement in or dissemination of knowledge of audio engineering, or to the promotion of its application in practice.

Honorary Member: a person of outstanding repute and eminence in the science of audio engineering or its allied arts.
