

In Memoriam

Reuben A. "Al" Isberg, AES fellow, died on April 13, 2004. He was 90 years old.

Isberg lived in Wilsonville, Oregon. Active in many professional societies, he received fellowship awards from the IEEE, Radio Club of America, Society of Motion Picture and Television Engineers, and the Acoustical Society of America. He was also named honored alumni of the University of Northern Colorado.

Isberg always had time to help people with their computers, camera and TVs. He was always willing to record and make audio or video tapes of speakers and musicians.

He is survived by his wife of 68 years, Dorothe, one daughter, two much loved daughters-in-law, nine grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.
