

Obituary

Robert Z. Langevin, a charter member of the AES, was born in 1925 in California. He attended the University of Colorado and the University of Michigan, where he received the B.S.E.E. degree in 1946.

Through 1950 he worked for companies founded by his father: Langevin Manufacturing Corporation, and Carl Langevin, Inc. In 1951 he joined Ampex Corporation and became associated with the engineering of audio tape recorders. In 1960 he served with Vega Electronics Corporation as project engineer for wireless microphones. He rejoined Ampex in 1961, and was an electronic engineer in its Audio Division.

He was a member of the IEEE and a life member of the Audio Engineering Society.

Mr. Langevin died in California in 2013 March 9.