

AES Board Meets to Plan '51 Convention and Audio Fair

At the close of the meeting shown here the 1951 Convention of the Audio Engineering Society, and The Audio Fair, were accomplished facts—waiting only for the grand opening on November 1 in the famous Hotel New Yorker.
